Items shipped using the Shipping Included or Free Shipping options will have the outbound shipping fee deducted from the refund or credit amount.

Shipping can be 50% or more of the original purchase price.

To receive a refund for returned merchandise, we must receive the merchandise in sellable condition. This means that all of the original boxes, packing materials, inserts, and sample pieces must be intact and undamaged. You may need to put your equipment box inside a shipping box. If any item is missing or unsellable we reserve the right to deduct the amount of the missing or damaged items from your return value. Please use box fill and plenty of packing tape when packaging your return. We are not responsible for returns damaged in transit.
